

The Future of CA eServices

by Dane Wilson

November 29, 2011

California
TECHNOLOGY AGENCY

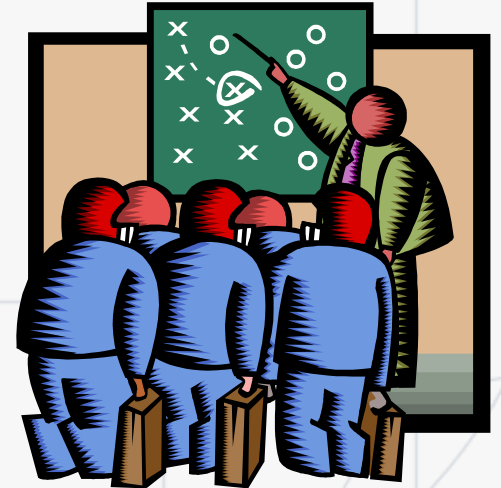

Dane Is Leaving

- Last day – December 15
- Heading to State of Oregon

The Plan

- Stacey will take over as Acting Director
- Arranging for additional resources
- Proposed eServices Office at CTA
- Work on BOW 2012
- Maintain the WUG community
- Will continue to call on you all

Functions of eServices

- Ownership of the CA.gov portal and its core sites
- Strategic planning for state portal
- Creation and revision of state web standards
- Establishment of state web policies
- Compliance with web standards and policy
- Promotion of web-related shared services with OTech
- Marketing of the CA.gov online brand and presence
- Support of state webmaster community
- Legislative liaison for web-related legislation
- Business consulting & management

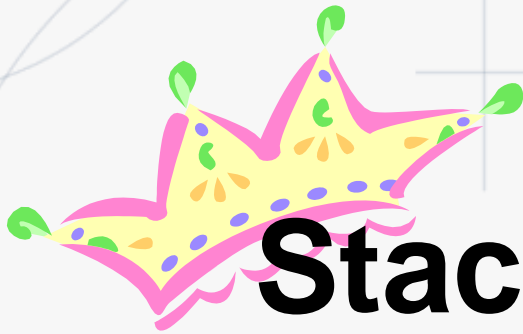

Functions of OTech Web Services

- Development of web architecture standards and processes
- Build and support web infrastructure
- Development of shared web services
- Web template coding in support of standards and shared services
- Business consulting

THANK YOU

Contact Information

Stacey Walker

info@eservices.ca.gov